

Scotland's Finest Woods

FOREST EDUCATION INITIATIVE

It's our Silver Jubilee! Special Awards Programme for 2010

We are Scotland's premier woodland awards programme and this is our Silver Jubilee year so the 2010 awards programme promises to be the most exciting yet! Be part of it...!

Three award categories are available:

- Schools Award >>

Schools and pre-school projects can enter our popular Schools Award.

So be sure to tell teacher and let the fun begin!

- Community Woodlands Award >>

Community and urban projects can compete for the Community Woodlands Award and the Tim Stead Trophy.

People from across Scotland work hard to support their local communities, our judges want to recognise their achievement!

- Silver Jubilee Prize >>

This special prize will be open to all those who have won the Hunter Blair Trophy for silviculture or the John Kennedy Trophy for multi-purpose woodlands over the last 25 years.

Our judges' task will be to identify 'the champion of champions'.

As always our judges will be seeking out Scotland's finest woods and rewarding the pursuit of excellence!

Entries must be received by March 31st, so don't be shy, enter your woodland project today!

See www.sfwa.co.uk for full information.

Prizes

Schools Award

There is a cash prize of £500 for the winning school and the second prize is £250. Each school will also receive a wooden display plaque recording their achievement and a special Tree Pack containing trees for planting or tree growing kits.

The winning school will be presented with their prizes on Friday, 25th June 2010 at the Royal Highland Show at Ingliston. Additional presentations can be made at schools or on site so that all those involved can join the celebrations.

Community Woodlands Award

There is a cash prize of £500 for the winning project and custody of the stunning Tim Stead Trophy for one year; the second prize is £250. Both also receive a wooden display plaque to record their achievement.

The winning project will be presented with their prizes on Friday, 25th June 2010 at the Royal Highland Show at Ingliston. An additional presentation can be made on the project site so that all those involved can join the celebrations.

Silver Jubilee Prize

There is £1,500 in cash prizes available.

This shall be awarded by way of £500 each for up to two top projects and up to two runner-up prizes of £250 or otherwise at the discretion of the judges.

In addition the prestigious Hunter Blair and John Kennedy Trophies will be awarded at the discretion of the judges with custody for one year.

The winners and runners-up will also receive a wooden display plaque recording their achievement.

The winners will be presented with their prizes on Friday, 25th June 2010 at the Royal Highland Show at Ingliston
